Town of Dewey-Humboldt Ethics Violation Report

I Jack Hamilton believe that Council Member Mark McBrady has violated town rules and codes, creating an ethics violation.

This violation first came to notice at the June 10th 2014 Council Meeting. This is when Mark McBrady said that he had called the Town Attorney directly because he had concerns about Paul Mangalla's land donation to the town. This is recorded on the town's recording of the meeting.

According to the town's Policies and Procedures PG NO TC12-02 regarding parameters of obtaining legal services, all communication to the attorney must go through the Town Manager. This is covered under section 4.1 and 4.4 of TC12-02.

4.1 Nonessential contacts with the City Attorney are prohibited for all staff members and members of the public body.

4.4 The town manager is the Council's point of contact to contact the attorneys. Council member's requests for legal advice shall be directed to the Town Manager.

Mr. Mark McBrady should have been aware of this rule since it was put in effect April 3 2012 when Mark McBrady was a Council Member.
