

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCLAMATION NO. 16 TO THE PROCLAMATION AND DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY DATED APRIL 7, 2020

WHEREAS, pursuant to Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S.) § 26-311 and Dewey-Humboldt Code of Ordinances § 30.031, and due to the COVID-19 pandemic, on April 7, 2020, Terry Nolan, Mayor of the Town of Dewey-Humboldt, Yavapai County, Arizona, declared a local emergency within the corporate limits of the Town of Dewey-Humboldt, and set forth regulations to preserve the peace and order of the Town, said declaration of emergency initially expiring on April 30, 2020, subsequently extended to expire on April 30, 2021; and is hereby reinstated on December 13, 2021 and extended until further notice because of the resurgence of COVID 19 infections in the tri-city area making it necessary as a matter of public welfare, health and safety as well as for Town staff health protection”.

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic remains a threat to the health and safety of the citizens of the Town of Dewey-Humboldt as set forth in the Proclamation and Declaration of Emergency of April 7, 2020 and Supplemental Proclamations Nos. 1 through 15;

NOW, THEREFORE, for the reasons specified above I, John Hughes, Mayor of the Town of Dewey-Humboldt, Yavapai County, State of Arizona, pursuant to A.R.S. § 26-301, et. seq., and Dewey-Humboldt Code of Ordinances § 30.031, do hereby proclaim and order that:

1. The Proclamation and Declaration of Emergency dated April 7, 2020, is hereby cancelled effective as of 12:01 a.m. March 21, 2022 such that Dewey-Humboldt Town Hall and the Town’s duly scheduled meetings shall resume.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 17th day of March 2022.
